Budgeting basics, part 1: how to create a budget. With your budgeting method of choice, list your weekly income in one column and your monthly expenses in another. Subtract the outflow (expenses) from the inflow to see how much remaining money you really have to work with per month, says Lowry. For most people, the word "budget" conjures up thoughts of penny-pinching and the unpleasant task of crunching numbers. This couldn't be. Budgeting is key to managing your personal finances. Use these budget samples to create a realistic budget, and track your income and expenses. 3 May - 3 min - Uploaded by TruMark Financial Credit Union Budgeting basics. TruMark Financial Credit Union.
