

A modern age cowboy, Douglas, manages to become a billionaire after starting investing and creating businesses which prove to be successful is returning to the ranch his father left him as inheritance after getting tired of travelling all across the United States. A black-skinned maid, Clover, who is currently working at the ranch, hears about her new master's arrival. The two, who used to be childhood friends, see each other for the first time in over 20 years. How will they react once their eyes will meet? What will their relationship be like? Will there be any love blooming between the two?
